

SNAFU Con 2012 Schedule!

Welcome to SNAFU Con 2012! You hold in your hands the power to see the future! Or the past. It really depends on your perspective a the time, but that's neither here nor there. Or maybe it's both here and there. Anyway! This is the SNAFU Con 2012 schedule. It is your best chance at making sure you know where to be when cool things are happening. We would love to tell you that cool things are happening everywhere all the time no matter where you are around here, but that, too, is a matter of perspective and taste. We are PACKED with programming this year! You should have no problem keeping busy, no matter what your taste happens to be. We do recommend you find some time to sleep, though. We have all been working hard to make this an absolutely epic year. Enjoy!!!

Photo Booth

This year we've added a new area for schedule and that is our photography studio. Our photography staff will be all around con taking pictures, but there are set times when our head of photography will be set up and taking free cosplay (or non-cosplay) pictures! We will post the pics on our Facebook page after con!

Don't forget to read your con book to find out what all these awesome things are that are going on!
